The Japanese fleet in effecting the blocking steamed into the entrance at full speed.

Naval officers who had made previous attempts begged permission to carry out the next attack in daylight, that being easier and their request was granted. So determined were the naval chiefs to succeed this time that they decided, if necessary, to lose half their men.

The number of casualties had not yet been cabled to Tokio on Wednesday. Congratulatory telegrams are being received from foreign friends and are also being exchanged between the authorities at Tokio and the naval and military officials at the front.

IS PORT ARTHUR SEALED?

St. Petersburg, May 5.—A message from Port Arthur yesterday evening stated that ships of the Japanese fleet were then cruising on the horizon and a fresh attack on the port was possible.

The message adds information which tends to confirm the Japanese contention that the harbor of Port Arthur is sealed.

This means that as soon as a few formalities are finished he will be admitted to West Point as a full fledged cadet.

Mr. Donovan was appointed to West Point by former Congressman Charles K. Wheeler, but the first time he applied for admission was found to be under weight, and was forced to wait awhile, until he became heavier. He is an unusually bright young man, and has hundreds of friends in Paducah and elsewhere who will learn of his success with pleasure, and wish for him a successful and honorable career in Uncle Sam's military institute.

N. C. & ST. L. OFFICES WILL REMAIN HERE

Report That They Will be Moved to Memphis Denied.

The Road Desires to Cross a Street at Memphis, But Offices Stay Here.

SUPT. HILL'S STATEMENT

The talk of moving the N. C. and St. L. general offices of the Paducah and Memphis division to Memphis, has been revived in Memphis, but Superintendent W. J. Hills, who returned yesterday from Memphis, stated to The Sun today, that there is nothing whatever in the rumor, and it probably, like the others, originated in the fertile imagination of some reporter.

The N. C. and St. L. attempted an extension of track across Clay street in Memphis, but the city officials stepped it. Its object was to reach a big warehouse being built there, and the road will probably later secure the desired permission.

It was reported some time ago that the N. C. and St. L. would move its offices from Paducah to Memphis and was then positively denied, and the report is now again denied with equally as much positiveness.

The report which Superintendent Mills today denies was published in yesterday's Commercial Appeal and is as follows:

"There is no doubt that if the railroad company is permitted to cross Clay street with a track or tracks, as contemplated, the general office of the Memphis and Paducah division of the Nashville, Chattanooga, and St. Louis railway will be located in Memphis. The idea of the company in crossing Clay street is to reach its own property on the north side of the street. On this property the company proposes to erect a large brick freight and office building. Plans for the building were drawn and agreed on some time ago, and only the right to cross Clay street with a track, or tracks, remains to materialize the improvements. If the city grants this right 15 or 20 families will be brought to Memphis to reside.

SOCIAL SESSION

Held by the K. of P. Last Night After Meeting.

A Committee Appointed to Forward Paducah's Bid for the K. of P. Home.

A special meeting of the Knights of Pythias Lodge was held last evening and the third degree conferred on several candidates. After the work a special session was held at which refreshments were served and an enjoyable time had.

A committee composed of Messrs. Al. Young, Alex Culp and Lawrence Gleaves was appointed to prepare and send away the bid of Paducah lodge, K. of P., for the Widow's and Orphan's Home. The contents of the bid were not made public, and will not be known until it is opened at Dayton, Ky., May 7th.

The members of Paducah Lodge are not at all discouraged, although a number of other Kentucky cities are after the institution. Louisville would ordinarily be the strongest competitor, but at present Louisville is raising about $40,000 for the big August K. of P. conclave, and as she has her hands full it is not thought will be able to prove a very formidable competitor for the Home.

FULTON CIRCUIT COURT.

FARNBAKER IS HOT ABOUT SCHEDULE

Says it is the Best That Could be Made.

The Aim is to Save Mileage—Wants Kicks Made to Him, Not to the Papers.

HERE TO ATTEND MEETING

Secretary M. J. Farnbaker, of Cairo, arrived in Paducah this morning to attend a special emergency meeting of K. I. T. league officers. He is somewhat indignant over the objection in some quarters to the schedule recently given out.

"I was instructed by the league to make up a schedule beginning May 11 and ending September 15, he said, 'with the various clubs distributed on the opening day as I have distributed them. This is all I had to go on, and I made out a schedule with regard solely to saving mileage and I believe that I have the best one that could possibly have been made.

"I had to also keep in mind that two of the clubs will not be able to play Sunday ball. Every club, it seems, wants the best of it, but everyone naturally can't get it. With all wanting the holiday games and all being unable to get them, the best thing to do is to have a schedule with the end in view of saving mileage, and I believe I have one.

"Speaking of all the clubs wanting the best of it, one club in the league wants a game at home every Sunday, which is of course absurdly impossible. We can't have a schedule to suit them all. The best way is to save mileage, and I don't think anyone can show me where I have failed to do it.

"So far as Paducah is concerned, Paducah had a game for last Fourth of July and voluntarily transferred it to Jackson. Now there is a howl because one isn't scheduled for this Fourth of July.

"Without going any further into details, however, I think the schedule is the best that could be made under the circumstances. I think, however, in justice to all concerned, that if there are any complaints to make, they ought to be made to me, or to the league, instead of the newspapers. It doesn't do any good to air these things in the papers, and often hurts the league. I have no interest in any of these clubs. They all look alike to me, and I think I did as well as anyone could have done in arranging the season's schedule.

Drifting to other subjects, Secretary Farnbaker said that it was to be hoped that the grand stand would be rebuilt at once. "Our grand stand at Cairo burned two years ago, he said, 'and it came near putting us out of business. It had taken six years to get the park in good condition when the grand stand caught from slack lime and was destroyed. Cows roamed the park after that until last season, and we never have since secured the perfect condition of the diamond that we had before."

CAPT. STONE HURT

Thrown Out of His Buggy in a Runaway at Kuttawa.

He Will Be Laid Up For Several Days But His Injuries Are Not Serious.

Captain W. J. Stone, former Congressman and a well known politician of Lyon county, was injured in a runaway yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock at Kuttawa, but is not seriously injured, his many friends will be pleased to learn.

Captain Stone was out driving when his horse shied at a fence which protruded out from the roadway. The animal became unruly and ran away, throwing Captain Stone out and badly bruising him about the body. No bones were broken and the injuries are external. He will be laid up for several days, however.

IN CONFERENCE

OVER THE NEW ILLINOIS CENTRAL TIME CARD.

The changes in the proposed new schedule of the I. C. as published in yesterday's Sun are said to be correct by local officials who have been studying the matter.

At present a meeting is being held in Chicago by higher officials and the superintendents of each division to arrange the new schedule. The trainmen, conductors and engineers, were consulted by the division superintendents and asked where better time could be made and what advantages they might suggest towards bettering the time table. The meeting will be over by tomorrow and the superintendents will return home. Supt. Egan, of the Louisville division will return Saturday.

NEAR HER FINISH.

THE NASHVILLE WILL PROBABLY SOON GO OUT OF COMMISSION.

After the river trip to St. Louis the Nashville will probably go out of commission. She was built ten years ago, and has never had a general overhauling since. Her engines are wearing out and minor repairs have to be made continually. In her ten years afloat she has been over a large part of the world. She was originally designed to navigate the Asiatic rivers, and sailed 800 miles up the Yangtze Kiang, carrying the American flag further than it had ever before been seen into the interior of China. She fired the shot in the war of 1898, capturing a Spanish merchantman.

SHALL WE DISPUTE

THE STATEMENTS OF SCORES OF PADUCAH CITIZENS.

The people of Paducah, like other American citizens, desire to "get at the bottom of" everything. They want to know the why and wherefore. When investigation leads to the most positive proof it is hard to dispute the evidence. Faith is born of experience and conviction should follow the evidence of people we know. The testimony of friends and neighbors can be easily proven and vouched for. There are many cases like the following, all from people here at home, and if the reader is still a skeptic why not investigate further, the way is open.

Mrs. M. S. Smith, residing at 523 Jefferson street, says: "I have complained of kidney complaint for a number of years. It dates back to 1884 suffered with a very distressing weakness of the kidneys which annoyed me day and night. There was often a dull pain across my back over the kidneys. It was these complaints which induced me to get Doan's Kidney Pills at DeBois & Co's drug store. After taking the treatment for a short time I noticed a great change in my condition and the improvement continued steadily. I feel better than I have felt for a long time. Doan's Kidney Pills are an excellent remedy and it is a pleasure for me to recommend them."

THE THIRD STREET PAVING LIKELY

Board of Works Agrees to Ask it in Its Amended Report.

Aldermen Act Tonight—Many Matters Considered by Board of Works Last Night.

RETRENCHMENT IS STARTED

The board of public works held its regular meeting last night, and considered a number of important matters. The report presented by the board to the council Monday night and amended by adding South Third street to the list of those to be paved, was concurred in by the board and will be offered to the board of aldermen tonight. If this board adopts it, the ordinances necessary to improve the streets designated in the report will be introduced, and if passed the work will proceed at once. These streets are already well known, and embrace the section bounded by First, Ninth, Kentucky and Jefferson streets, with South Third street to Broad added.

The board opened bids for furnishing various supplies to the city, such as coal and feed, but let no contracts. The contracts now in force will expire about June 1, and it is expected to save considerable money this year on the new contracts.

The board has ascertained from reports already received that the street roller, which used to be the butt of Democratic jokes because it was purchased by the Republican council, is about the best property the city has, and will save hundreds of dollars heretofore wasted on the streets. Jefferson street has been practically reconstructed without scarcely any extra cost, simply by harrowing it and rolling the gravel already on it. Broadway is now being given the same treatment in the west end.

The system of daily reports from foremen of street gangs was ordered inaugurated, beginning today. In addition a daily report will be required from the overseer of the chain gang showing how many prisoners are worked daily, in order that it may be compared with the city jailer report. This will be something new, and will enable the city to keep track of every prisoner and how much work he does. A number of accounts were gone over, and the board is learning much in regard to the costs of improvements and other work in the city, which will be of invaluable aid in future retrenchment.

City officials do not take seriously either the project of moving the city hall, or of changing the location of the market house.

"As to the city hall," said one official today, "the place we have now is the best in the city. We have plenty of room to expand when we get the money, and besides, the city has just completed $4,000 worth of work on the present city hall building, $2,000 for plumbing, $1,000 for vaults, etc., and $1,000 for interior furnishings."

"As to moving the market house, there is no reason that I can see why it should be moved. The present property would revert to former owners should any effort be made to change the location, and plunge all that business property along the street into possibly endless litigation, as all the transfers have been made on the basis of keeping the market house there permanently. It is true that Paducah is growing rapidly, and that the market house is in one end of the city while a central location might be more desirable, but most of the people in Paducah now do their marketing through the grocer, or buy from the grocer direct, so it makes little difference where the market house is."

The bill for repairing the city scales comes up tonight in the board of aldermen, and may provoke discussion. The work is alleged to have lasted two days, and the bill is for $43. A member of the board said today: "I don't understand what kind of high class work it could have been to justify a bill for $43 for two days' work for two men. It strikes me that it was simply mechanical work such as any machinist could probably do, and I want to find out why the charge is so much." The bill has been hanging fire about a month, and was allowed in the big batch passed on by the council Monday night.

FIRE AT OSCAR

Frank Payton's Home and Telephone Station Burn.

The Loss Will Amount to Several Thousand Dollars, With Partial Insurance.

Tuesday night the residence and general store of Mr. Frank Payton, of Oscar, Ky., thirty miles from Paducah, near Bandana, Ballard county, burned with a loss of several thousand dollars partially covered by insurance.

The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. The residence and household effects were valued at about $1,500 and Mr. Payton carried $600 insurance. The stock of goods in the store was owned by Mr. J. W. Webb and valued at $3,000 with $1,800 insurance.

The fire originated early in the night and before anything could be done to save any household effects or goods, the buildings were completely burned. Mr. Payton is well known here.

The store was the toll station of the Cumberland Telephone Co. and the telephone was burned. A temporary station has been installed and the line is working today, as usual.

COMPLETE PLANS

Instead of the usual banquet at a hotel, such as has been given the association meetings here, a boat will be chartered for the first evening of the meeting and the guests taken on an excursion. Refreshments and music will be furnished. The excursion will remain on the river several hours.

No other arrangements except what are already on the programme were made. The meeting will be held at the city hall as usual.

NO STEMMING

TOBACCO WILL BE SHIPPED IN DIFFERENT WAY HEREAFTER.

The Imperial Tobacco company, of England, which has numerous factories and stemmings in this country, has notified its agents and managers in this country to resume operations, but to stem no more tobacco. Heretofore the tobacco has been stemmed before shipped which saved a great deal in the way of freight. Parliament, however, added a tax of several cents for stemmed tobacco, and hereafter it will all be shipped with the stems on it.

Manager Clarence Martin, of the local stemmy of the Imperial, at Fifth and Clay streets, today resumed operations. He has about 75,000 pounds on hand that is stripped, and will ship it, but will send the remaining stock of 50,000 pounds, and all other received hereafter, with stems on it.

HARNESSING POWER OF THE OHIO RIVER

Cincinnati Men Take Preliminary Steps.

$50,000,000 Estimated as Cost of Doing Away With Floods and Low Water.

SECRECY BEING MAINTAINED

Cincinnati, O., May 5.—It is learned that at a meeting held at the residence of Isaac J. Miller, plans were discussed for harnessing the Ohio river for power and commercial purposes from Pittsburgh to Cairo. At the meeting were Gen. Michael Ryan, former City Auditor Hayden, E. P. Bradstreet, of the Bradstreet, Commercial agency; John Paul, of the Fairmount Brewing company; William O. Klien, former City Electrician; Attorney O. J. Renner, Attorney Albert Bettinger and several other lawyers and capitalists. They were all pledged to secrecy.

The plan is to elaborate on the work now being done by the Government and also to build reservoirs at the headwaters of the tributaries of the Ohio. It is said that the plan can be carried out for $50,000,000, that it will do away entirely with floods and low water, and also that it will provide electric current to all the cities along the river at a small fraction of the present cost. Another meeting for the purpose of pushing the plans will be held in the near future.

SENATOR CLARK.

MAY MARRY HIS WARD, NOW IN PARIS.

Washington, May 5.—The secret of Senator Clark's European trip, his Washington friends say, is that when he returns he will bring a bride, Miss Anna La Chappelle, daughter of a prominent physician in Butte, Mont., now dead. Senator Clark was left guardian for Dr. La Chappelle's children, and his interest in Miss Anna dates from her early girlhood. She has spent the last eight years in Paris, studying the harp and vocal music, and is a musician of rare skill. Senator Clark's failing health is given as the reason for his hasty and quiet marriage, although his friends assert that he has been engaged to his ward for three or four years. His children are opposed to his marriage, and there has been some old troubles between the younger members of the Clark family and the La Chappelles, dating for years back. Miss La Chappelle is described as an exceedingly handsome young woman about 28 years of age. Her mother lives in Minneapolis with her married daughter.

THE TOBACCO NEWS OF THIS SECTION

Something About Strips and Parliament.

Considerable Activity is Reported in Various Kentucky Markets.

MUCH BURLEY TO BE PLANTED

Since our last, we hear of no further proceedings in the British parliament regarding the proposal to add 6 cents to the duty on tobacco strips, making the duty three shillings and three pence or 78 cents per pound, with leaf remaining at three shillings or 72 cents as at present, says the Western Tobacco Journal. It is certain that up to this writing, no further progress has been made with the bill.

We are of the opinion that dealers in strips are needlessly alarmed at the prospect for them in the future. We find that on March 31 the total stock of western leaf in Liverpool was 7,312 hogheads, against 38,803 hogheads of strips. As it is estimated that about 3,000 hogheads of western tobacco are used every month, and although manufacturers in want of stock will purchase leaf in preference to strips, the quantity of leaf stated won't last long. This stock of leaf, it may be stated, will be enlarged by what leaf will be exported this season, but in no case can it be large, as the aggregate quantity of leaf which can now be put up to late in the season, out of the crop left unsold, will necessarily be small; besides, as probably 15 to 20 per cent, and that this year's leaf, can not be used by English manufacturers for nearly one year from June, 1904, there seems to be less real reason for stemmers on this side, and holders generally in England, to be alarmed as much as some of them are. While sales of strips may be delayed until the leaf is sold, holders of strips had better be firm and hold until the time comes for strips to be wanted, which time is sure to come.

In Henderson, on Thursday and Friday last, deliveries were quite large, with a firmer feeling and to take desirable crops, with the American Tobacco company large buyers of unfired and the Imperial company taking only the best crops in dry order, which has been easier to get than formerly, when so much sprinkling of tobacco was in vogue to bring it in order.

From Owensboro we learn that the market there was unusually excited by the free buying of independent dealers, both at auction and privately, at prices from 1 to 1½ cents higher, while the great bulk of the tobacco sold was of the lower grades, and at prices which pleased farmers exceedingly. The American, Continental and Imperial Tobacco companies had been most active in the country, and are said to have cleaned up nearly everything in sight in Daviess county.

In the Clarksville district prices are reported stiffer, with more desire to purchase than of late.

Correspondents write us that there will be a larger planting of all kinds of tobacco in Southern Kentucky than expected, more particularly of the strictly dark and Green river pryor varieties, which latter have advanced in the country 1 to 1½ cents per pound over prices of a month ago, with the balance of the crop in Daviess county having been almost entirely bought up by the Continental and Imperial Tobacco companies at these advanced figures. This will no doubt lead to an increase in the planting of such, while the planting of burley there will be a certainty, as well as in Indiana, where we are informed nothing but burley will be planted.

GROWING ACHES AND PAINS.

Mrs. Josie Sumner, Bremond, Texas, writes, April 15, 1902: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with good success. It is the best Liniment I ever used." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by Du Bois, Kolb & Co., Paducah, Ky.

NOT TO ATTEND FAIR

OVERSEER AT ZION CITY DE-
CLARES IT WILL BE CARNIVAL OF VICE AND IMMORALITY.

Chicago, Ill., May 5.—No follower of John Alexander Dowie will be permitted to attend the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis, and the penalty will be immediate expulsion from the church. The announcement was made at Zion City by Overseer John G. Speicher, who declared the Fair will be a "carnival of vice and immorality" and "held under the devil's auspices."

The officers of Zion, the overseer declared, would keep a sharp lookout to see that no one violated this injunction. He urged his hearers to invite their friends intending to visit the exposition to stop at Zion City and be persuaded to abandon the idea of going to St. Louis.

A cablegram received from Dowie stated that he had reached Aden, is at present on the Red Sea, and will arrive at Marseilles next Saturday.

LULLABY OF A HIMALAYA BABY.

In certain parts of the Himalaya Mountains the native women have a singular way of putting their children to sleep in the middle of the day. The child is put near a stream of water and by means of a palm leaf or a tin scoop the water is deflected so as to run over the back of the child's head. The water pouring on the child's head apparently sends it to sleep and keeps it so, while the mother proceeds with her work in the fields. No one seems ever to fear that baby may be drowned.—Chicago Journal.

A POSITIVE NECESSITY.

Having to lay upon my bed for fourteen days from a severely bruised leg I only found relief when I used a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine for bruises ever sent to the afflicted. It has now become a positive necessity upon myself. D. R. Byrnes, Merchant, Doversville, Texas. 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Du Bois, Kolb & Co., Paducah, Ky.

NEXT CONSISTORY.

FOREIGNERS STAND A BETTER CHANCE OF BECOMING CARDINALS.

Rome, May 5.—The next consistory for the election of cardinals is fast approaching. There are now seven vacancies, which it seems the pope is inclined to fill with foreigners—that is, not Italians. His motives for not creating cardinals of the curia are partly political and partly economical. Every cardinal residing in Rome receives a yearly stipend from the vatican, while the cardinals of the provinces and abroad are paid locally. The 31 cardinals now residing in Rome means almost 800,000 francs a year in stipends direct from the vatican; moreover, the weight is somewhat too much on the side of the Italian cardinals, and therefore the pope desires to restore the balance by creating foreign members, which is likely to benefit England and the United States.

HARDWARE DIET.

HUMAN OSTRICH MAY DIE FROM OPERATION.

New York, May 5.—John Fasel, the human ostrich, who swallowed metallic objects, was operated on at the German hospital for acute indigestion caused by partaking too heartily of a fricassee of hardware.

Dr. Toke succeeded in extracting from Fasel's alimentary canal six knives, one gold chain, three ring chains, four keys, 12 wire nails of all sizes, eight horseshoe nails and a metal pin 2 inches long. It was said that the pin caused all the trouble by lodging in the intestine.

Fasel is in a critical condition. This is his second operation of the same kind.

100,000 CATHOLICS TO ATTEND.

Cincinnati, May 5.—Preparations are well under way for the fourth annual convention of the American Federation of Catholic societies in Detroit August 2-5. The event promises to be one of the most representative gatherings of Catholics ever held in the United States. Over one million Catholics will be represented.

WHAT ABOUT THE SCALES?

Several weeks ago, to Mayor Yeiser was referred the matter of investigating the city scales for the purpose of ascertaining what was the matter with them and why the receipts were falling off. The mayor has made no report, although the evidence necessary to make one could be secured with very little trouble, and some of it is, and has been for several weeks in the possession of members of the general council. During April, according to figures secured in the treasurer's office, the city scales took in $47.95, not enough to pay the weigher's salary. Last year for April the receipts of the scales were $89.35, a falling off of over $40, or nearly 50 per cent.

Thus, while the mayor is taking his time about doing whatever he intends to do, if he intends to do anything at all, the city scales are not paying expenses, not even the weigher's salary of $60 a month; and the private scales are doing a good business. These private scales pay $15 a year license and are now getting business that until recently came to the city, and why? There must be some reason for it. It wasn't that way under the administration of the former weigher, and it ought not be that way now.

The administration not long ago offered the absurd excuse that the scales were out of fix, and had been for two years. There is no way it could be ascertained how long the scales had been out of order, unless the city officials knew it all the time, and if they did and didn't do anything to have them repaired, the administration stands convicted on its own admission of wilfully robbing the patrons of the city scales for two years, by taking money for weighing produce on scales that did not weigh correctly.

But even if the scales had been out of order for two years, that is not what has caused the gradual falling off in receipts since the first of the year, when the former weigher was ousted to pay a political debt. There were no complaints before the scales changed hands. There have been almost innumerable ones since.

All that is asked of the mayor, or of any other city official, is that he do his duty, and do it quickly. The trouble at the scales was referred to the mayor, and there is no excuse for his failing to show the board of aldermen the courtesy of making a report. If there are any charges to prefer he has to do it, and at least some explanation is due from him.

The city scales should be self-sustaining. If they are not the taxpayers will have to pay the difference. If the mayor has not made the investigation asked of him, he should tell the board of aldermen tomorrow night why he hasn't; and if he has, he should tell the board what he found out.

What's the matter with the board of public works? It was announced a short time ago that no more streets were to be torn up until the two blocks then, and still impossible, were completed. Yesterday another block on Fifth street was converted into a corn field, despite the fact that practically no work has been done towards paving the other two blocks that have been excavated for several weeks. If there was as much hurry about doing the paving and getting these streets in order as there is about tearing them up, the public would not be so inconvenienced.

The Democrats of Kentucky who were hoping for a Republican split were badly fooled. The party is united, and the state convention was one of the most harmonious ever held. Kentucky will go for Roosevelt—and so will the remainder of the country.

Speaker Cannon declines to be vice president. He prefers presiding over the House, to the sleepy Senate. Probably he couldn't bear to think about being where he wouldn't hear the eloquent speeches of Congressman Ollie James, of Kentucky.

The conservative Democrats down here may be for Parker, but they will find some mighty lively Democratic politicians on the Hearst side when the show down comes.

Wonder what the Parker Democrats in Paducah will say if the chairman of the Democratic county committee introduces the Hearst emissaries Friday?

Editor Hearst has done one good thing—put Carter Harrison out of business in Carter's own town of Chicago.

INDIANS BACK

They Took Two Games From Poplar Bluff.

President Jackson Will Have a Much Larger Grand Stand This Time.

The Paducah baseball team returned from Poplar Bluff, Mo., last night about 7:30 after a series of three games, two of which were won by the Indians and are resting up today. Tomorrow the Poplar Bluff team will arrive and begin a series of three games. The Poplar Bluff team is said to be fast and the locals worked hard to defeat them. Brabie, Freeman and Brady, who did the box work for the locals in Missouri, did excellent work and the team played all 'round ball. Land behind the bat can not be surpassed in the league, it is said, and is fast becoming a favorite here. He played ball with Arthur Long, the fast left fielder signed yesterday, and is a sample of the fast ball players turned out in the eastern part of the state.

The baseball grounds are being rolled today and temporary bleachers built. This will serve until the grand stand can be completed and the work on the stand will begin at once. President Sam Jackson will build the new stand much lower and on entirely different lines with a much larger seating capacity.

A Clarksville dispute says the team there will be as follows: Petit, catcher; Harris, Frakes, Myatt and Pierce, pitchers; Reiney, manager and first baseman; Smithheel, second base; Payne, shortstop; Lewis, third base; Jeffries, left field; Hennessy, center field; Weaver right field. This is regarded as a pennant-winning aggregation. Petit caught for Jackson in 1903 and was considered the best backstop in the league. Harris was the star twirler for this city, and Reiney held down first. Harris and Reiney are the only members of last year. Clarksville will play her first game at Paducah on May 11.

The Vicksburg, Miss., club has been forced to give up Wallace, Cairo's heavy hitting outfielder. Wallace does not like it and neither does Vicksburg, but it is the order of the national secretary.

In a game between Birmingham and Montgomery yesterday in the Southern league the pitchers together gave 17 bases on balls, which is said to break the record.

Warner, Henderson's catcher last year, is trying to get with Hoptown this year.

—All subscribers to the Reeland Methodist church, of the county, who have not paid their subscriptions, are requested to pay them as soon as possible, either to Rev. T. J. Owen, of this city or to Mrs. C. H. Brooks, of the county. The money is very much needed at present to make some payments on bills due on the church.

How Consumption Affects the Lungs—Blood Wine
Makes Startling
Cures.

Do you know what an old, ragged sponge looks like—flabby, torn, without life or elasticity? That's how a human lung appears when consumption has done its deadly work. Yet this terrible disease is curable—if taken in time. Read the following typical case, that of Miss Louise Clements, 98 Aiken St., Lowell, Mass.:

"Last winter I caught a cold which settled on my lungs, and for weeks I was unable to get out of the house. As spring drew near, the cold wore off, but left me with a rasping cough, which caused me the greatest alarm. Nothing seemed to stop it; physicians told me that I had developed consumption, and that they could do little for me except to make my life easier, unless I should go to another climate. I was very weak, my skin feverish and my appetite absolutely gone. A friend advised me to try 'Blood Wine,' and from the very first it helped me. My strength came back slowly but surely. I began to enjoy my food. Life became worth living, and to-day I am absolutely well."

Think of it—just a little cold and cough at first, and then, first thing you know, the vampire grip of tuberculosis closed upon the victim. Better be warned and take Blood Wine as soon as you find yourself with a cold, cough, or the least bit run down and overtired.

For Consumption ask for our Liver Pills. See for 25 cents.

MADE NEW EYE

PRINCETON, KY., MAN CAN NOW
SEE QUITE WELL.

Dr. Lillard Sanders performed an operation on the eye of Mr. J. W. Stallins of Princeton, Ky., by which the sight, which was obscured has been restored. Mr. Stallins had a blow in the eye which destroyed the pupil and made him totally blind, since he had lost his other eye some time ago.

About ten days ago Dr. Sanders made an artificial pupil, and the patient can now distinguish objects, and the physician thinks that the sight will constantly improve.

It is also thought that the other eye can be similarly restored, so that with the aid of glasses, Mr. Stallins will be able to see well enough to read.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie James, of Evansville, are in the city and are the guests of the Rudd House, says the Owensboro Inquirer. They have been married about six weeks and tomorrow is the last day of their honeymoon, as they will then return to Evansville. Mr. James is one of the most popular salesmen that stop in this city, and is widely known here both in business and social circles. His bride was Miss Geraldine Sanders of Paducah, and is indeed a charming young woman. She, too, is well known to Owensboro's society people and she and Mr. James have been the recipients of many attentions during their brief stay here.

Written at Random.

To learn and play a repertoire of from twenty to forty plays is something that the average person does not appreciate the difficulty of—unless he or she has tried it. This, however, is what the Ethel Tucker Stock company is doing at The Kentucky theater. Those who aspire to stage careers doubtless do not think of the hard work which falls to the lot of those who have not yet reached a rung on the ladder of fame from which they can complacently look over the heads of their fellow mortals and take things easy. Some who have achieved greatness can night after night, week after week, and even year after year play the same character—and walk away with the money, like Joe Jefferson, who has for many years played principally "Rip Van Winkle."

It becomes automatic, monotonous, and all that, but it does not tax the mind and energies like constant rehearsals. It requires a versatility and vigor to keep it up that would soon send ordinary mortals into nervous prostration. But a stock actor is not an ordinary mortal. He appears in six or a dozen different characters every week, and must remember every line, every movement, and every gesture. And it looks so easy to those on the other side of the footlights!

"I have found in my experience," said Miss Tucker, leading lady of the stock company, "that if you please the ladies you will get the crowd. If the ladies want to go, the men want to, or sometimes have to, go with them. As a result I have selected for my repertoire the best and most pleasing plays—plays that anyone can enjoy, but which the ladies particularly will like. We are constantly adding new ones, and people would be surprised to know how many different characters we play, and how many thousand words we have to remember. People in our profession do our best to please, and if we fail—well, we have the satisfaction of knowing we do our best."

The Illinois Central has adopted a policy which all railroads, as well as other corporations and other interests, should profit by. It is to give the newspapers, when requested, all information relative to wrecks, accidents, and other things regarded as legitimate news. Reporters very often, in the pursuit of their calling, meet with a brusque, often insulting, "Have nothing to give the newspapers." This not only arouses resentment in the reporter, but forces him to seek and secure information often from unreliable sources, which it is not his desire to do. Many of the inaccuracies of the daily prints are due to the inaccuracy of the information received. Reporters, not being eyewitnesses to a large per cent of the things they write up, must get their data second hand—often worse than that, and the best way for all concerned is to give them the best you have in the shop. This is the way Second Vice President J. T. Harahan, of the Illinois Central, looks at it and he has issued a circular directing officials and employees of the company to give out all news of wrecks and other matters of interest and to withhold nothing.

The circular says that while the newspapers generally have been friendly, statements have been published prejudicial to the company's interests. This, it is believed, might have been avoided had the road's employees given to the press promptly and accurately the information desired. It is the company's wish, says the circular, to guard against the possibility of erroneous accounts of railroad news in the future and to encourage pleasant relations with the newspapers.

"The delay in the arrival of the Tell City Sunday was caused by trouble between the mate and the deckhands at Emmick's landing, near Hawesville. Without any seeming cause or excuse the mate, Charles January, of Evansville, knocked a man overboard with a stick. While the men were getting him out of the water he struck another on the head with the same stick and knocked him senseless. The negroes carried the second man ashore and refused to return as long as January was on the boat. Captain Ballard ordered January to quit the boat and the negroes then returned. It is said that they will make a report to the surveyor of the port at Evansville and that January will be proceeded against for his brutality."

The above, from an Owensboro paper, is an instance of one of the causes of the negro abandoning the river, or demanding exorbitant pay for working on steamboats. Nobody but the negro can do the heavy work of loading and unloading steamboats, especially in hot weather, and no one but the negro would submit to the abuses of some of the mates. The ignorant foreigners who are physically able to do the work don't understand English, and consequently don't last long as rousters. The solution of the problem of steamboat labor depends largely on the mates, not the negro rousters.

"Speaking of actors," said Stage Manager Wm. Malone, of The Kentucky, "the best character-man I ever came across in my fourteen years experience on the stage, was a man who could neither read nor write. He was not an ignorant man, because he had acquired in his travels and experience an extensive knowledge of the world, and in his conversation displayed every evidence of culture and education. But he couldn't read, and when employed for a part would take some member of the company aside and say: 'Here, read this to me. The writing is so bad I can't make it out.' Of course they were all next, but not wanting to hurt his feelings by betraying their knowledge of his educational shortcomings, they would read him the part until he knew it, and he would give them a $10 bill. He had wonderful adaptability and a remarkable memory, and it didn't take him long to learn every cue and all the lines. He was well along in years and always got a good salary. In fact he was so much in demand as a character man that I have known New York managers to pay $100 for a release from a contract, to get him for a few weeks."

The loss to railroad companies by minor accidents amounts to many thousands dollars every year and a careful examination of the bulletin boards in the trainmen quarters will show the care taken by the officials to ward against even the most trivial accidents.

For instance a bulletin was recently posted in the local trainmen quarters, warning all trainmen to look closely to refrigerator car pipes and see that they did not clog. Recently, the bulletin read, a car of fruit was ruined by clogged pipes, the water flooding the car and damaging the entire contents worth hundreds of dollars. This is not an infrequent occurrence in the summer time and is one example of the many orders issued by railroad companies to prevent loss.

Indelible pencil marks will show through any quantity of paint and when a wall has been defaced by indelible pencilling, there is no removing it.

At the local I. C. depot the smoking room was recently repainted and shortly after the paint dried it was noticed that pencillings appeared beneath the paint. The painters explain that all ordinary pencil marks can be painted out, but indelible marks will come through the paint no matter how thick and there is no remedy for it. The object in painting the wall of the smoking room was to erase the hundreds of names, and crude designs drawn in profusion by travelers on the walls.

"Baldy" Watkins, the barber, who for the past two or three years has been trying to get possession of several million dollars worth of property in Philadelphia, seems to be stringing the reporters up in the state. Last night telegrams were received in the city wanting to know if Baldy had purchased any city bonds in Paducah. It was probably only one of "Baldy's" smokeups. Baldy is a good talker, however, and his romantic quest of a fortune makes "good stuff" for almost any newspaper.

Theatrical Notes.

The Boston Globe says: "Miss Blanche Buckner who has the leading singing role in the 'Isle of Spice Co.' is a Kentucky beauty of Louisville, and is here with that company. She is expected to sing her way into the hearts of music lovers of this city."

The Ethel Tucker Stock Company last night at the Kentucky presented "The Gambler's Wife," and it was pronounced by many present the best yet played by this popular company. The audience was appreciative and the work of the company was equal to that of many high priced companies seen here during the past season. The specialties added to the enjoyment of the performances, and the company is proving a winner. Those who have not attended any of the performances should come out and see for themselves what they are missing.

WAR CLAIMS

Provision of New Bill May Benefit Confederates.

Time For Paying For Horses and Side Arms Extended.

Washington, D. C., May 5.—By passing a provision in the general deficiency bill, extending for two years the privilege to former Confederate soldiers of filing certain claims against the Federal government, Congress opened the way for the reimbursement of a large number of Kentucky's old soldiers. One of the terms of the surrender at Appomattox was that Confederate soldiers who owned their own horses should be permitted to retain them, together with their side arms. But it was some little time before the terms were communicated to all the Federal troops in the field, with the result that this particular concession was generally recognized.

As a consequence a large number of Confederates were improperly deprived of their horses and side arms. A couple of years ago Congress passed a bill authorizing such veterans to file claims for reimbursement on this account, and within a short time the court of claims had passed upon $125,000 worth.

The news spread through Kentucky and neighboring States rapidly, and the additional claims allowed by the court exceeded the appropriation.

At the session just ended Congress increased the money available for that purpose to $225,000 and also extended the time for filing as stated. This will prove a benefit to a good many grizzled veterans of the Bluegrass State.

OLDEST PRINTER IN THE WORLD.

Milford, Mass., May 5.—James C. Cook, known as the oldest practical printer in the United States, if not in the world, died here of old age, in his eighty-seventh year. Mr. Cook, was the senior proprietor of the Milford Journal.

and it was for my interest to learn if I could the secret of its many crimes."

"Ah!"

Mr. Jeffrey looked quickly up. "You think that an odd thing for me to do?"

"At night—yes."

"Night is the time for such work. I did not care to be seen pottering around there in daylight."

"No? Yet it would have been so much easier. You would not have had to buy candles or carry a pistol or—"

"I did not carry a pistol. The only pistol carried there was the one with which my demoted wife chose to take her life. I do not understand this allusion."

"It grew out of a misunderstanding of the situation, Mr. Jeffrey. Excuse me if I supposed you would be likely to provide yourself with some means of defense in venturing alone upon the scene of so many mysterious deaths."

"I took no precaution."

"And needed none, I suppose."

"And needed none."

"When was this visit paid, Mr. Jeffrey—before or after your wife pulled the trigger which ended her life? You need not hesitate to answer."

"I do not." The elegant gentleman before us had acquired a certain fierceness. "Why should I? Certainly you don't think that I was there at the same time she was. It was not on the same night even. So much the walls should have told you and probably did, or my wife's uncle, Mr. David Moore. Was he not your informant?"

"No. Mr. Moore has failed to call our attention to this fact. Did you meet Mr. Moore during the course of your visit to a neighborhood over which he seems to hold absolute sway?"

"Not to my knowledge. But his house is directly opposite, and as he has little to do but amuse himself with what he can see from his front window I concluded that he might have observed me going in."

"You entered by the front door, then?"

"How else?"

"And on what night?"

Mr. Jeffrey made an effort. These questions were visibly harassing him. "The night before the one—the one which ended all my earthly happiness," he added in a low voice.

Coroner Z. cast a glance at me. I remembered the lack of dust on the nest of little tables from which the upper one had been drawn forward to hold the candelabrum and gently shook my head. The coroner's eyebrows went up, but none of his disbelief crept into his voice as he made this additional statement:

"The night on which you failed to return to your own house."

Instantly Mr. Jeffrey betrayed by a nervous action, which was quite involuntary, that his outward calm was slowly giving way under a fire of questions for which he had no ready reply.

"It was odd your not going home that night," the coroner coldly pursued. "The misunderstanding you had with your wife immediately after breakfast must have been a very serious one, more serious than you have hitherto acknowledged."

"I had rather not discuss the subject," protested Mr. Jeffrey. Then as if he suddenly recognized the official character of his interlocutor he hastily added, "Unless you positively request me to do so, in which case I must."

"I am afraid that I must insist upon it," returned the other. "You will find that it will be insisted upon at the inquest, and if you do not wish to subject yourself to much unnecessary unpleasantness you had better make clear to us today the cause of that special quarrel which to all intents and purposes led to your wife's death."

"I will try to do so," returned Mr. Jeffrey, rising and pacing the room in his intense restlessness. "We did have some words. Her conduct the night before had not pleased me. I am naturally jealous, vilely jealous, and I thought she was a little frivolous at the German ambassador's ball. But I had no idea she would take my sharp speeches so much to heart. I had no idea that she would care so much or that I should care so much. A little jealousy is certainly pardonable in a bridegroom, and if her mind had not already been upset she would have remembered how I loved her and hopefully waited for a reconciliation."

"You did love your wife, then? It was you and not she who had a right to be jealous? I have heard the contrary stated. It is a matter of public gossip that you loved another woman previous to your acquaintance with Miss Moore, a woman whom your wife regarded with sisterly affection and subsequently took into her new home."

"Miss Tuttle?" Mr. Jeffrey stopped in his walk to fling out this ejaculation. "I admire and respect Miss Tuttle," he went on to declare, "but I never loved her—not as I did my wife," he finished, but with a certain hard accent, apparent enough to a sensitive ear.

TELEPHONE MEN WIN FIRST BLOOD

City's Demurrer to Suit of Prohibition Overruled.

The City Will Probably Allow Case to Be Tried on Its Merits.

OTHER CIRCUIT COURT NOTES

The East Tennessee Telephone company won first blood today in its effort to prevent the city from collecting a special license on every one of its telephone poles in Paducah. The company yesterday filed a writ of prohibition in circuit court against the city for the purpose of preventing the collection of the tax. The petition alleges that the city collects taxes on $40,000 worth of property, collects $100 a year license tax to do business and that the poles the ordinance imposed a tax against are the property of the company, and are assessed and taxed in the $40,000 worth of property mentioned above. It claims that the 50 cents a pole cannot be either a property tax, or a license, as the company already pays both, and is an effort to impose a double tax.

The city entered a general demurrer to the petition, which demurrer simply means that the city claims the company has failed to allege sufficient facts to justify a cause of action, and asks that the petition be dismissed for this reason.

The demurrer was argued yesterday, and this morning Judge Wm. Reed, in circuit court, overruled the demurrer, which means that the court deems the facts as alleged sufficient cause of action, and will try the case on its merits.

The city can now either appeal the demurrer decision, and ascertain if the courts of appeals also deems the cause of action as alleged sufficient, or go ahead and try the case on its merits. On account of the desire of both city and the company to have the case settled as soon as possible City Solicitor Paryear has virtually decided not to appeal on the demurrer, but to go ahead and try the case.

The city's defense is that the 50 cents or $1 license on each pole is for the "rent of the streets," but as no "rent" is charged street car companies for tracks or the water or gas companies for pipes, there seems to be little in the defense.

The desire of both sides is to settle the case as soon as possible, and there is a great deal of interest in the date Judge Reed fixes for trying the case. Meanwhile the prosecutions in the police court will probably be held up.

The suit of Major T. E. Moss against Morris Friedman for $1,500 has been dismissed in circuit court. The amount is the balance on a building on Second street, the $1,500 being held back until the courts decided the ownership, which was in controversy. Mrs. Vina Allard, who claimed an interest in it, recently lost in circuit court and suit was brought against Mr. Friedman for the balance, but it was shown that the court of appeals yet has to pass on the case, and Major Moss withdrew the suit.

At press time the case of Mrs. Sarah Ellithorpe against Louise Donnoy, for $5,000 for alleged alienating the affections of her husband, was on trial. The plaintiff claims the defendant and her mother, who is now dead, entered into a conspiracy to get her husband away from her. The case has been on the docket for three years and Judge Reed intends to finish it this term.

The case of Miss Donaly Carney against El Guthrie was called this morning and the trial gone into, but on account of Attorney Charles K. Wheeler's having to leave the city on account of his brother's death, was laid over until Monday.

HON. JAS. A. ROSE

Will be Candidate for Secretary of State of Illinois.

Well Known Statesman Recently Declined to Run for Governor.

Hon. James A. Rose, of Golconda, who has been secretary of state of Illinois for the past several years, will be a candidate for secretary of state in the coming election on the Republican ticket. Mr. Rose is well known in Paducah, and is father of Mrs. James P. Smith. He recently declined to run for the Republican nomination for governor of Illinois.

The Republican convention will be held May 12, and it is understood Mr. Rose will announce his candidacy two days before.

There has been a general sentiment permeating political circles in many sections of the state for some time that Mr. Rose would stand for another term as secretary of state. It is known that he has been urged for months to announce himself. Even before he announced himself a candidate for governor and after his withdrawal, his friends insisted that he stand for his renomination as secretary of state.

He has recently conferred with many of the party leaders in all sections of the state, and, his friends claim, received such encouragement that he cannot longer refuse.

What will result in this late announcement is not known, but the many friends of Mr. Rose aver that he will go into the convention with the almost solid support of Egypt and will be nominated early in the balloting.

A Wonderful Act...Ricardo and His Fierce African Lions

A truly wonderful act is that of Ricardo, of the Great Mundy Trained Animal Show, with his trio of forest bred African lions. These huge beasts are of the most savage and ferocious of their kind and were captured in the wilds of Western Africa, after killing a number of natives who took part in entrapping them. Several luckless trainers tried to subjugate them, but in vain, one of them being killed and the other two badly injured. Ricardo, Europe's most successful trainer, heard of them when all hopes of training them had been given up, and after persuasion of the management was allowed to enter the cage with them. They tried to attack him, and the reception they met cowed them completely. Their education commenced immediately and within a year they have been taught the performance which they today present. They will positively be seen week of May 16 at Paducah's great spring carnival.
